

Job Fair for Senior Care Community

RENO, Nev.—Cascades of the Sierra, a resort-style continuing care campus opening in May, will host a job fair at its community center, the Cottonwood Room at Lazy 5 Regional Park, on Wednesday, Feb. 4, from 1 to 7 p.m. The Cottonwood Room is located at 7100 Pyramid Lake Highway in Spanish Springs.

Applications and interviews for all levels of employment at Cascades of the Sierra will be accepted at the job fair. At the job fair, Cascades hopes to fill 75 positions for the anticipated May opening to include activities, guest services, culinary, nursing, care giving, housekeeping/laundry and maintenance staff. Those not hired immediately will be placed in a pool for up to 150 total positions at the community once it is at full occupancy.

For further details on exact positions and requirements, please attend the job fair. For more information about Cascades of the Sierra, visit www.cascadesofthesierra.com.
