

November 19, 2010

CASCADE LIVING GROUP ANNOUNCES PROMOTION OF KIMBERLY WAGNER TO PARTNER AND VICE PRESIDENT OF SALES AND MARKETING

Cascade Living Group has announced that Kimberly A. Wagner, Director of Sales and Marketing, has been promoted to Vice President of Sales and Marketing. Ms. Wagner has also accepted an invitation to become a principal and equity stakeholder in the Seattle based senior housing company.

Ms. Wagner joined Cascade Living Group in 2007 and has been instrumental in the development and direction of all company and community sales and marketing strategies, including acquisitions and new developments. Ms Wagner has over 20 years in sales and marketing experience. Prior the joining Cascade Living Group, Ms. Wagner held multi-community sales and marketing positions at American Retirement Corporation and Brookdale Senior Living.

As a Principal, Ms. Wagner joins co-founders Tom Stanley, Bill Shorten and Dale Zulauf in directing the operations and continued growth of the company. “We are committed to creating a first class sales and marketing organization, while building significant value and always doing the right thing for our residents. Kim ‘s leadership has and will continue to be key to this strategic direction” said Mr. Zulauf, who leads operations for Cascade Living.

Founded by three partners with extensive experience in senior living, Cascade Living Group operates upscale senior living communities throughout the western U.S. The company currently owns, manages and develops senior housing communities that offer a broad range of senior living options including active independent living, assisted living, as well as integrated and free standing memory care communities. For more information, visit www.cascadeliving.com.