Good Friends Make Good Neighbors Program

Seniors love living at Inland Point and since our residents are often our best spokespersons, we've created this Program to show our appreciation.

When an Inland Point resident or family member refers a new potential resident* to a Cascade Living Community and that person moves in for at least 90 days, the referring resident will receive a $1000 credit applied to their base rent.

*In order to qualify as a new potential resident, the person being referred may not already be on our contact list. To make a referral, and to ensure you receive credit for making introduction, please provide your name and the name of your friend or family member to our Executive Director or Community Relations Director prior to the inquiry or tour.

Mr. New Year's Eve

When the clock strikes midnight on New Year's Eve, countless revelers will burst into a chorus of "Auld Lang Syne." The Scottish folk song has become a holiday tradition thanks largely to one man, bandleader Guy Lombardo, nicknamed "Mr. New Year's Eve." Born in Ontario to a musical family, Lombardo, his three brothers and several friends formed the Royal Canadians in 1924. Five years later, the band performed a live radio broadcast from New York City's Roosevelt Hotel on Dec. 31. They bid farewell to the old year by playing "Auld Lang Syne," which the Lombardos knew from their childhood and often used as a show finale. The group's annual radio show continued until 1956, when it made the switch to TV. Viewers tuned in each holiday to watch Lombardo and his Royal Canadians, which grew into a 16-piece orchestra, play popular and classic tunes, and see the crowds gathered in Times Square. After nearly 50 years of festivities, Lombardo led his last show in 1976. But his legacy lives on as his rendition of "Aul Lang Syne" is the first song played after the ball drops in Time Square. Lombardo and his Royal Canadians were one of the longest-running big bands in history, with over 100 million records sold and 21 No.1 hits
